Check your details carefully

It is important to make sure that your personal details are listed correctly. Incorrect information can cause problems when applying for housing allowance, student finance or a driving licence. Please check the above summary carefully.

Have you found a mistake?

If there are any errors in the personal details listed above, you will need to have them corrected. For a change of address, you may visit a City Office (stadsloket) without an appointment.

For other matters, you will need to make an appointment online at amsterdam.nl/afspraak (Dutch only). Please select the option Burgerzaken, then select Inleveren (Buitenlandse) Brondocumenten.

Please bring the following to your appointment:

- a valid form of identification (passport, identity card or driving licence)
- documents that can be used to verify the correct personal details

Your Citizen Service Number

Your Citizen Service Number (burgerservicenummer, BSN) is listed in the summary above. You will need this number when dealing with the Dutch government and with certain other organisations, such as your health insurance provider. Please keep this number in a safe place.

Your details and confidentiality

Public authorities such as the Dutch Tax and Customs Administration (Belastingdienst), the Employee Insurance Agency (UWV), or pension funds may retrieve your personal details. Certain other parties, such as lawyers and social services, may also request access to your details. If you do not wish to permit this latter group access, you can request that your details be kept confidential. In that case, we will only provide them to government institutions that require them to perform their statutory duties. For more information, please see amsterdam.nl/geheimhouding (Dutch only).

We will never provide your personal details to commercial entities or private individuals for any reason (including reunion planning) without your prior written consent.

Questions?

Do you have any questions about the Municipal Personal Records Database or about your rights and obligations? Please visit amsterdam.nl/veelgevraagd or call the City of Amsterdam's information helpline: 14 020. The helpline is available Monday to Friday from 08:00 to 18:00. You can choose to speak to an English-speaking operator.

General information about the Municipal Personal Records Database can be found on the official website of the Government of the Netherlands: www.government.nl.

You can view your personal details on the website Mijn.overheid.nl. You will need to register using your personal DigiD.

Sincerely,

On behalf of the City Office manager
D. Van der A
City Office staff member
